

Be my wife

Spring is coming fresh and new, excitement in the air ....
While days are longer nights run shorter, promises every whè-here

Your eyes were shining, they caught my gaze....
You seemed so diff'rent, from another place...

I knew by heart that all would change, the start of a diff'rent time ....
The start of a diff'rent time

Spring is coming fresh and new, excitement in the air ....
While days are longer nights run shorter promises every whè-here

Whenever you come wherever you go
You bring a smile while spreading a glow

And when we walked amidst the flower fields
You slipped your hand in mine....you slipped your hand in mine

Whenever you come, wherever you go
You bring a smile while spreading a glow

I knew by heart you 'll change my life
You should become my wife... you should become my wife

Spring is coming fresh and new, excitement in the air ....
While days are longer nights run shorter, promises every whè- here

Will love you always, only be yours
Never betray you, do all the chores

And when we walk amidst the flower fields...
Your hand will slip in mine .....your hand will slip in mine ...

I knew by heart you'll change my life
you should become my wife ... you should become my wife
