

ONLY ME

On a windy Sunday morning.... driving down my van,
just around that spooky corner, I saw this precious gem.....
And now.. that gem is close to me.. I'm wondering who you are....
You're such a lovely mystery... a shiny magic star...

But how could I know about that man on your side
He glanced at me..... with anger in his eyes.
Anger in his eyes

'Cause you're on my mind love.... always on my mind.
I never will betray you, you're such a special kind.

And now you're here, close to me.
There's no doubt in me, (that) you're the one I need.
Let me hold you in my arms my love.... I'll never go away.....
This moment I've been waiting for, (my) love is here to stay
'Cause your eyes are always shining.....your smile is always bright
Your attitude to life my love I need that on my side.....

But how could I know about that man on your side
He glanced at mewith anger in his eyes.
Anger in his eyes.....

'Cause you're on my mind love.... always on my mind.
I never will betray you, you're such a special kind.

And now that you're here so close to me, you belong to me, the whole world can see...
now that you're here, close to me. you belong to me.....only me....
You belong to me.....only me.
ONLY..... ME
